

CHAPPELL INSURANCE PRIVACY STATEMENT

The privacy of our customers is important to Chappell Insurance. The information we collect which includes personal and team information is only provided to the issuing insurance company. Financial information is not provided to the insurance company. Chappell Insurance does not keep financial information on file after processing of payment. General information which includes team name, mailing address, sport and email address are used by Chappell Insurance to advertise Chappell Insurance sport programs only. We do not sell nor give our customers information to a third-party.